Overview

Experience the magical beauty of Kerala with this 4 Nights 5 Days Kerala Tour Package, an ideal getaway for families, couples, and nature enthusiasts who want to explore the best of God's Own Country in a short but fulfilling trip. The journey begins with your arrival at Cochin Airport or Railway Station, from where you are transferred to the picturesque hill station of Munnar, located approximately 130 kilometers away.

Munnar is a scenic paradise, famous for its sprawling tea gardens, misty mountains, and cascading waterfalls, including the stunning Cheeyappara Waterfalls, which create a spectacular view as clouds often float at eye level during the drive. Upon arrival, you can check into your hotel and relax amidst the refreshing hill station atmosphere, soaking in the tranquility and the scenic beauty that surrounds you. On the second day, after breakfast, you embark on a full day of sightseeing across Munnar's iconic attractions.

Begin with Mattupetty Dam, where you can enjoy boating and the peaceful surroundings, followed by a visit to the lush green tea gardens that stretch across the hills, offering picture-perfect landscapes. Next, stop at Echo Point, renowned for its natural echo phenomenon, and continue to Top Station and Anamudi, which provide panoramic views of the Western Ghats that leave visitors spellbound. The day also includes a visit to Eravikulam National Park, home to the rare Nilgiri Tahr and surrounded by stunning landscapes, giving travelers a perfect blend of nature, wildlife, and adventure. After a leisurely evening, spend the night at your hotel in Munnar, rejuvenating for the next leg of the journey. On the third day, after breakfast, you are transferred to Thekkady, located in the heart of Kerala's Cardamom Hills, approximately 120 kilometers away.

Thekkady is world-famous for the Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary, offering a unique opportunity to witness South India's rich flora and fauna. Here, you can enjoy a boat ride on Periyar Lake, where you may spot elephants, deer, and exotic birds in their natural habitat. The afternoon is reserved for a tour of the fragrant spice plantations, where you can also purchase fresh spices such as cardamom, cinnamon, and pepper directly from local vendors, providing a true taste of Kerala's rich agricultural heritage. Overnight stay in Thekkady ensures you wake up refreshed for the journey to the backwaters.

On the fourth day, you travel to Alleppey, the gateway to Kerala's iconic backwaters, where you board a traditional Kerala hotel / Resort / house Boat. This serene cruise takes you through a network of tranquil lakes, lagoons, canals, and rivers, allowing you to experience the slow-paced village life along the banks, the swaying palm trees, and the calm waters that reflect the sky like a mirror. Enjoy freshly prepared Kerala cuisine onboard, adding to the unique experience of staying on a floating house amidst the tranquil surroundings.

The final day of the tour begins with breakfast on the houseboat, followed by a transfer to Cochin Airport or Railway Station for your onward journey or return home.

This 4 Nights 5 Days Kerala Tour Package perfectly combines the misty hills of Munnar, the wildlife adventures in Thekkady, and the serene backwaters of Alleppey, offering travelers an immersive experience of Kerala's natural beauty, culture, and heritage, leaving you with unforgettable memories of this enchanting state.
